Sarasin reinforces Stewardship team with appointment of Analyst

Sarasin & Partners (Sarasin) today announces the appointment of Kwai San Wong as Stewardship Analyst with immediate effect. Kwai San will be supporting Head of Stewardship, Natasha Landell-Mills.

Kwai San joins from BMO Global Asset Management EMEA, where he worked as an Analyst in the Governance and Sustainable Investment team for five years.

Kwai San, a CFA Level 3 candidate, holds an MBA with Distinction in Finance from Durham University in addition to an Engineering degree from the Chinese University of Hong Kong and a Law Degree from University of London International Programmes, Hong Kong.

Natasha Landell-Mills, Head of Stewardship commented:

“We are thrilled to announce the appointment of Kwai San to the stewardship team at Sarasin & Partners. Not only is he highly qualified and experienced, but he is passionate about ensuring a considered, engaged and robust ownership approach to investment. Responsible stewardship is ingrained into our culture at Sarasin & Partners and Kwai San will be working with me on several key initiatives such as our endeavours to ensure more prudent international accounting standards; demonstrably independent audit and a more active approach to climate risk management.”
